

SLAP AT JEWISH CADET AT NAVAL ACADEMY CALLED

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Criticizes Editor of Annual

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 16.—Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, today officially reprimanded Ensign J. L. Olmstead, editor of the "Lucky Bag," the yearbook of this year's graduating class at Annapolis, for "crude and unwarranted" treatment of Leonard Kaplan, a fellow member of the class.

Secretary Roosevelt told Ensign Olmstead, whose home is in Des Moines, Iowa, that he had been guilty of "an action which casts a grave doubt as to your possession of those qualifications essential to any officer in the United States navy," and added that the "department will require from you in the future evidence of a fundamental change in your attitude toward your comrades in the service."

Others, especially the associate editors, the naval secretary asserted, undoubtedly were guilty in some measure for the affront to Kaplan which consisted in perforating the page in the year book containing his photograph and biography so that it might be removed. But, added Mr. Roosevelt, the primary responsibility rests on Ensign Olmstead.

When asked for a copy of the reprimand, Acting Secretary Roosevelt made public at the same time a statement in which he expressed the belief that no racial antipathy was behind the treatment of Kaplan. "A most serious note in this instance at the academy," Col. Roosevelt said in his statement to newspaper men, "was struck by the query in certain people's minds as to whether the action had been taken because of racial reasons. Feeling as strongly as I do how un-American any such distinction as this should be, I have gone most carefully into this phase. I am happy to say that I am convinced that had though this incident was, no such motive was behind it."

"The records of the naval academy show that in the class of nineteen twenty-two nine men entered their faith as Jewish. Certain of these men were among the most popular in the class. Furthermore, a number of our prominent officers, in the past, and at this time, are either Jewish or Jewish extraction."

"The traditions of our country have always been exemplified by our navy. We pride ourselves that in the service there are no distinction of race or creed."

Kearns Begins a Boost for Jess to Meet Dempsey

(By Associated Press)
Los Angeles, Cal., June 16.—Jess Willard would give Jack Dempsey a better fight for the world heavy-weight championship boxing title this year than he did three years ago at Toledo, in the belief of Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, commenting today on a virtual defi Willard issued yesterday.

"One of my reasons for thinking so is that Willard will be in much better condition than when he was defeated," Kearns said. "I saw Jess several days ago and he is already in pretty fair shape. He will no doubt work hard from now on so as to be in the very pink of condition."

Jack for the purpose of making any money, because he has made plenty in the oil business during the past year or so. He is simply going into the match to prove that he is a better man than Dempsey and absolute-

Baseball Gossip

Ocala loaned a portion of its team to Perry yesterday in an effort to defeat Lake City. Van Landingham was one of the men sent over to help Rube Elrod, a former Pal, trim East-grly's crew. Buckles, who caught the first game for Leesburg against Palatka, also was with the Perry outfit, indicating that baseball talent now is on the hoof.

Hippo Barrett, the big fence buster seen here with the Savannah club and who started the Pals on the to-boggen, wants to come to Palatka. Barrett had a tryout in the Southern league this season, but was not in condition. He is the hitting sensation of the Savannah City league.

We can look for more trouble when we meet Ted Easterly's gang again. The old head has filled up a few loose places and as he stands behind the pan and pulls all the strings he'll be hard to beat by the average club. News also comes that Sanford is strengthening and that Starke is going out to get a winner. If this keeps up the independents will be able to go into the state league parks and take a game whenever they get ready.

ly thinks he is Dempsey's master. Of course, I think Jack will lick him again, but I really believe Willard will make a better showing this time."

Asked when the match would be held, Kearns replied that the felt "certain the match would be pulled off next September."

GIANTS CLIMBING WHILE YANKEES A SCANT HALF LEAD

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 16.—Bill Ryan, youngster from Holy Cross, won his game yesterday from elderly Babe Adams and the Giants climbed higher in their ascent to the National league gonfalon, while the Yankee contingent, with their 1921 ace, Mays, fell before Cobb's outfit in Detroit, and slipped to within a half game of the St. Louis Browns, who took a 3-2 game from the Washington Senators.

Incidentally George Sisler got his 101st hit of the year and jumped his batting average to .433 which, even in these days of alleged lively bulls, is lusty clouting.

"Duster" Mails went well for a while against the Red Sox, then he weakened, the Sox defeating Cleveland, 8-3.

The Athletics found two White Sox hurlers for fifteen hits, won, 10-8, and broke the Chicagoans' winning streak of six games.
Cincinnati, baffled by George Smith's slants, lost to the Phillies, 7 to 0. The Cardinals loafed with their bats until the eighth inning of their game with Brooklyn. Then they started a rally that ended in the tenth with victory, 4-3. Stock tied the score in the ninth, connecting for a homer with a man on base, and Hornsby's double in the tenth carried across the winning tally.

Local fandom is hopeful that when the Pals get home and have a day's rest they will be able to go over to Lewis park Sunday and redeem themselves. Ocala comes here Monday and Tuesday and the two disasters suffered in the Wolfcat town may be avenged. All kinds of stories as to how it happened have been received here, and as usual the umpire is mentioned as having virtually given one game to Ocala. It is still fresh in the memory of the locals that last year a game was lost to Ocala under circumstances that the Pals were at least critical of.

News comes from Jacksonville that Umpire Poole, who was struck on the back of the head with a ball last Sunday in Jacksonville, is improving in a Jacksonville hospital. His injury at first was thought to be serious. Poole will be missed in the series here, as he no doubt will be in other games, as it is stated that he has decided to give up umpiring.

The Saints, with a badly disorganized team, handed the Levy club a defeat yesterday. Oldfather, the Saints' star third baseman, is away on a vacation, and Cootie Carter is covering the hot corner, while pitchers are being shifted in the outfield. It was stated here today that Oldfather will be back in the game this week.
Corcho, the Cuban centennarian who is given credit for a victory over the Pals yesterday, is a Tampa leaguer, but has not been able to make the grade this year. He never was a real pitcher and the score yesterday shows that the Pals were getting to him, Peters stinging him for a triple.

New Smyrna Girl Drowns in Surf

(By Associated Press)

Daytona, June 16.—Miss Henrietta Fairweather, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. J. H. Fairweather, of New Smyrna and Indianapolis, was drowned while swimming in the surf at Coronado Beach, New Smyrna, yesterday with a party of young men and women. Her body was recovered.

Her swimming companions were unable to account for her death. She had ventured out far in the water and they did not know of her plight until they came from the surf. Her mother recently returned to Indianapolis and the young had been visiting her sister at New Smyrna.
